Quality in Dentistry – 360 selected papers

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Quality Standards - Quality Assurance – Quality control - Quality Management (alphabetically sorted)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

82. Heimansohn H. Quality control For Dental Radiographs. Dent Dig. 1965 Feb;71:60-3.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number</th>
<th>Author(s)</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Source</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

---

Clinical Governance (Chronological sorted)

---

Standard of Care (Chronological sorted)

Quality of Scientific Literature in Dentistry

Quality of Products

Quality of Services

Quality of Dental Records

298. The components of Quality dental records. Oberbreckling PJ. Dent Econ. 1993 May;83(5):29-30, 32, 34

Dentists' skills and abilities to prevent all forms of oral diseases

Dentists' skills and abilities to diagnose correctly all forms of oral diseases

Dentists skills and abilities to recommend and offer optimal diagnostic tests and interventions for correct indications?

Asbjorn Jokstad, D. D. S., Ph. D.
Professor & Head, Prosthodontics
Room 356C, 124 Edward Street Toronto Ontario M5G 1G6
a.jokstad@dentistry.utoronto.ca

Dentists skills and abilities to communicate sufficiently to empower patients to understand and chose amongst (sometimes complex) alternative interventions

Dentists skills and abilities to communicate adequately with specialists

Dentists skills and abilities to execute different interventions technically correct

Dentists skills and abilities to meet their patients' objective and subjective needs

